Buffalo, N.Y., April 4th, 1944.

Dear Sir:

I am writing you to let you know that I will again have the leading semi-pro base ball club in this territory during the coming base ball season of 1944; and, besides having the pick of the best semi-pro players in Buffalo and vicinity, I will also have such well known former professional base ball players as Warren (Buddy) Rosar, first string catcher of the Cleveland American League Club last season, who is remaining at his war plant job here in Buffalo this season; Chet Ross, a regular outfielder with the Boston Braves of the National League for the past few seasons, including all of last season; and Eugene "Hook" Geary, former Pittsburgh National League Club earlier this season, but who is not going to report to the Phillies, and who will stay right here in Buffalo and work at the Airplane plant of Curtiss-Wright.

My club will again play games at Offermann Stadium in Buffalo; Hyde Park Stadium in Niagara Falls, N.Y., and some at Scott Park in Hamilton, Ont. also.

Kindly let me know what is the earliest time that your club will be in this territory, and how soon your club can meet my all-star white club here in Offermann Stadium in Buffalo; at Hyde Park in Niagara Falls, etc., in a three or four game series.

Thanking you in advance for an early reply, and wishing you another very successful season, I remain,

Very Truly Yours,

Ray J. Fischer
